

Drew McCourt

Principal, McCourt LP

President, McCourt Global Properties

Drew McCourt is the President of McCourt Global responsible for strategy, investments and management of the firm's real estate assets and venture portfolio.

Under McCourt's leadership, MG Properties has nearly 6 million square feet of mixed-use space in development. This includes a 740,000 square-foot mixed-use development project at 360 Tenth Avenue in New York City; a 1.8 million square-foot luxury residential development project on Brickell Bay in Miami, a 2.4 million square-foot development project on Waller Creek in Austin, and a 900,000 square-foot project in the Shoreditch area of Central London.

Through MG's venture arm, McCourt has led a series of investments in innovative real estate development technology companies poised to disrupt current industry practice. The portfolio investments include Fullstack Modular, a fully integrated modular solution for design, manufacturing and construction, and Arial Rapid Transit Technologies, a series of innovative, large capacity gondolas—the first of which is proposed in Los Angeles.

McCourt earned a B.A. from Columbia University and an M.B.A. from the Stanford Graduate School of Business.
